

Oso

We just wanted to let you know how unbelievably happy we are with Oso (formerly Snickers). He is amazing! He has adjusted so well to our home.

Within five minutes of his arrival, our 13-year-old kitty was giving him love rubs. It's been great! He has not even cried or whimpered once since he's been with us. I was expecting him to cry a little since he was in a new home and he hasn't at all. He is even sleeping in our bedroom without being in the crate. He wakes a couple times throughout the night to let us know he needs to go out and then goes back to sleep. We are truly in love.

He is a precious, smart, sweet little guy and we very much believe he was meant to be ours! Thank you so much for allowing us the gift of having him as part of our family! We are forever grateful!

Again, thanks so much...he's a blessing!
